John Milroy was one of the first retailers to pioneer Single Malt Whiskies in London over 40 years ago. This Scottish connoisseur's devotion to promoting Malt Whiskies and his ability to identify special casks has created an international following for The John Milroy Selection.

Somewhat brooding in initial intensity, tannic with brazil kernels and glimpses of camphor candles, this dram soon begins to show a softer underbelly with a melange of grape, apple and melon shining through. A little of this could be said too for the palate until the fruit bombs explode and the oils control the evolution of all that is good here. The finish balances the personality of this dram perfectly between the sweeter and drier elements with the former having an edge.

As John himself would say,
"Happy Drams!"
